1. What is HTML?

Ans:

* HTML is the standard language used to create and design document on the world wide web.

* It provides the basic structure that tells the browser where the headings, paragraphs and images should go.

2. What is a webpage?

Ans:

An webpages is a single document on the internet. It is a specific "page" within a website. When you click a link and the content changes, you are usually moving from one webpages to another.

3. What is website?

Ans:

A website is a collection of related webpages that are grouped together and usually share a common domain name.

4) What is an extension?

Ans:

* In this context, a file extension is the suffix at the end of a filename.

* It tells the computer and the browser what kind of file it is and which program should open it.

5) What does HTML stand for?

Ans:

HTML stands for Hypertext Markup Language.